Especially with personally drawn works of art, this is a very special gift. I usually spend a lot of time thinking about the colors with other books; with this one, the choices become much more significant, and I want to make a difference to Sara's creativity. Her work has stretched me significantly-much more than other coloring books. The time to think is a peaceful exercise. It is also a nice challenge to put all the puzzle pieces together. And what a lovely foundation to start with- the rich variety of lilies and their simple, elegant beauty.

This is a wonderful journey. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Praising God through color and journaling. By RPRI very much appreciate the work and beauty Sara Joseph put into this book. I love the size as I enjoy journaling in large books. Being able to put my love of God, my love of color and and my love of journaling together in such a book as this is wonderful. I plan on giving this to my granddaughter who also has the same loves as I; love of God, color, and journaling, but before I do, I have chosen to color and journal a few pages that will be something special to my Sara from her Nana. Creating beauty through color with the inspiration of God's Word backing you up is truly a privilege I wish everyone could enjoy and with this book, they can. Thank you Sara Joseph for this wonderful way of praising God in our quiet times. 4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Buy 1 for yourself and 5 for the others you love!! By Alicia McGraw I just bought 3 copies to give as gifts and I am so excited about their arrival! I think it will be refreshing to my friends' souls. I am on staff with a Christian organization and am connected to many girls in college and just out of college. This is perfect to give to my disciples, my co-workers, and my girlfriends from church. I know with a lot of my friends who have anxiety (sadly, many of the girls in their 20s) that even time with the Lord can be so anxious, so I think their time with the Lord could be much sweeter getting to rest in Him, enjoy Him, and consider the lilies!

Worried about the future? Overwhelmed because of work, health, financial or other concerns? Consider the lilies, instead!
